WE hear that the French mail steamer wie bourns, which will carry the next home mail, turned back on reaching Gutzlaff on account of the typhoon reported by Dr Doberck on Saturday. Her departure from here may therefore have to be postponed. The boisterous and threatening weather which has been experienced here for the past few days is probably the result of this typhoon. In fact, fears were entertained. that the typhoon itself would visit here and precautions were taken by the naval authorities against such a contingency.

THE offices of the Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation were transferred from their temporary location, near the P. & O. Co.'s Office, to the premises of the New Bank, this morning; and a large number of residents paid a visit to Mr Walter and his portionally well built, twenty-four years staff on the occasion. The process of removal was no small matter, and it was evident, from the frequent journeys of the or priest. constables) that there had been a very imday. There was more bustle discerniblein the new offices to-day than usual, consequent upon the removal and the influx of visitors; but the general verdict was that the new Bank building will most efficiently fulfil its object in every way. The offices, both general and private rooms, are spacious and fitted in a manner which equals anything of the kind to be found anywhere. On entering from the Queens' Road, the fine expanse of air-space supplied by the dome at once compensates for any possible objections staff overy success in their new home.

The barometer has risen. Gradients are rather steep for S. W. winds. The typhoon appears to have entered Northern China. The temperature and humidity are moderate and overcast and wet weather provails. THE almost interminable trial of Chang Chi was brought to a conclusion this afternoon by Mr Mackean committing the prisoner to gaol pending the instructions of His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government. Mr Caldwell hinted that if this charge failed, a further charge would be preferred against the prisoner.

A collision took place in the harbour yesterday botween the German steamer Velox, and the British barque ? Three Brothers which resulted in considerable damage being done to both vessels. The Velox came in from Canton and while procooding to her moorings was carried almost broad side on to the stem of the barque which was saverely damaged.

A FRENCH correspondent has sent us an extract from a letter he received from M. the coul mines of Hongai. M. Silvestre says a mission has been sent to Tonkin by the French Government under the direction of a mining engineer, M. Sarran, who besides having explored the coal region of Hongai and Ke Bao has already opened galleries for working at the bay of Hongai on behalf of the States. The products obtained up to this date are of a poor nature, with short flame, unsuited consequently for heating marine machines but susceptible of heating with advantage limestone kilns and forges.

FROM telegrams to Le Saigonnais dated Paris 3rd August we learn that in the elecstions for the renewal of a half of the Conservatives have gained 14 seats, while for 170 seats a second ballot is required. This result would seem to confirm the reaction towards Conservatism, which was so manifest at the elections for the Chamber of Deputies held a year ago; and there is every chance the movement will spread if the leaders of the Republic fail to find a better means of securing their position than banishing troublesome opponents.

The request to them is, we believe. couched in more guarded language than that addressed to those whose lot is cast in purely Chinese jurisdiction; but there is every reason to bolievo that scope of the negotiations does not vary to any appreciable extent, and that a refusal a gold watch and chain, a diamond stud, to comply may lead to unpleasant confequences unless the authorities here take more timely action than they have been doing of late. It would be a very favour- This letter was addressed to Mr Kuhlmann able opportunity now to start a system of registration for those Chinese or Anglo-Chinese, who desired finally and entirely to depend upon British protection. The sole objection which we can see lies in the apparent reluctance of Great Britain and her officials to take trouble about those who depend upon them for protection. This reason is admittedly explainable upon .Imperial grounds; but there are circumstances, we think, when the local Executive may move even against the tendency shown by the Home authorities. The necessity which exists here for strengthening by every possible means the confidence of the native trader and merchant in complete British protection, need not be enlarged upon. We therefore call upon the local Government to open its eyes to the unpleasant fact that certain leading residents here have been singled out as fit subjects for 'squeezing' by the Canton authorities. There is no need for beating round the bush in describing the process by a less offensive name, because the modus operandi is but too well known. The expression upon a native's face when he receives an official aunouncement that a mandarin wishes to borrow money of him, is sufficient to class this grievance under its proper head. THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND THE GUN ARMAMENT.

We have received the following letter, for publication, from the acting Secretary of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce. It deals with the much-discussed subject of the class of armament to be supplied by the War Office for the Defences of Hongkong, and it contains statements concerning the information previously at the disposal of members of the Council on this matter which will doubtless come to many residents by way of a surprise. Doubtless we shall hear more of this later on; and in the meantime we merely give publicity to the somewhat ancient-dated communication: --

There he asked for Brantly, and being told that she was out, remained till three o'clock when the woman returned in company with a man. Stromblad said he wished to have an interview with her, but Brantly refused, and a disturbance occurred. A Sikh constable had to be called and his presence had the y left the fair shores of the maisland and effect of quietening Stromblad for a time. Shortly after the constable left, however, he went upstairs in pursuit of Brantly, who had concealed herself in a room in the upper part of the house. Not being able to get at her he stopped on the passage of the top floor, Another phase is of even more direct imtook from his pocket a letter, throw it on the floor, and drawing a revolver shot himself through the heart. The act was seen by Miss Wilbur, an inmate of the house, whose evide ce is given below. Medical assistance was at once sent for, but all was useless as death must have been instananeous. The body was afterwards removed to the Mortuary, where an inquest was held on it this afternoon. In the possession of decrased was found a deposit receipt for $662 on the Chartered Bank several I. O. Us. of the value of about $ 20. American bank-notes of the value of $70, and other valuables. There can be little doubt that Stromblad's intention was first to kill Brantly and then to take his own life. This is made clear by what he says in the letter 'I love her and with me she shall go. whom he requested to look after his body and see it tespectably buried and also to see Brantly-put away properly.

Before any evidence was taken, Mr Johnson asked leave to amend the charge by indicting the men with having been guilty of violation of duty in having accepted bribes from or on behalf of gamblers, on the 8th August and he further charged them, also under section 15, with disobedience of the orders and regulations of the Captain Superintendent in having taken a gratuity or reward without permission from the Captain Super-

Mr Webber protested against these amendments. It was not fair after three witnesses had been examined that the Crown, with all its knowledge of the ordinances by heart, should change their charge Besides he had not seen the regulaions and orders, nor did he know that these had been brought home to each individual when he joined.

MARRIAGE OF MISS OECILY M. WELD AND MR JASPER G. MAYNE.

The Straits Times gives the following description of the marriage of Miss Cecily Mary Agnes, second daughter of Sir Frederick A. Weld, G.C.M.G, of Chideoc Manor, Dorsetshire, Governor of the Straits Settlements, to Mr Jasper Graham Mayne, 'The Inniskillings,' A.D.C., only son Colonel Charles O way Mayne, Bengal Staff Corps, an event which took place at Singapore, on the 2nd inst. :-The ceremony was performed at the Cathe Iral Church of the Good Shepherd presence of a large concourse spectators. About 270 of the leading citizens had been invited to witness the ceremony almost all of whom accepted the invitation. Amongst the guests we noticed H. H. the Sultan of Johors. Church and the ground were beautifully shire Elevenat Sheffield to-day. The contest decorated for the occasion. At the entrance gate there was a floral arch, and each side of the path was lined with Venetian poles and streamers. A temporary porch opposite the front entrance to the Church had been erected and was tastefully decorated with evergreens and flags and the floor laid with carpeting. The interior of the Church was decorated with evergreens which hung in festoons from the cornice; and were wreathed round the pillars, the whole having a very pleasing offect contrasted with pure white of the walls. By eleven o'clock the church was quite full, and the Bridegroom, along with the Groomsman, Mr E. Druitt, R.E., were waiting. Shortly afterwards Lady Weld arrived, escorted by Colonel Ryan, R.A., and a few minutes afterwards the Bride entered leaning on her father's arm, and attended by her two sisters. Miss Christina and Miss Edith Weld, as Bridesmaids. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Right Reverend Bishop Gasnier, assisted Fathers Barillon and Vignol. After the ceremony, mass was said, at the conclusion of which the Bishop preached a most excellent sermon on the duties of matrimony. His Lordship then announced that His Holiness Popé Leo XIII had by telegram deputed him to give his special Pontifical blessing to the bride and bridegroom, and he then in a most impressive manner pronounced the Papal benediction. The congregation then dispersed, the wedding party and guests proceeding to Government

On arrival at Government House, which was gaily decorated with evergreens and flags, the guests, after congratulating the one supplied by Messrs Buszard & Co., Oxford Street, was then cut up and distributed. During breakfast, the Band of the Buffs, which was most kindly sent by Colonel Blakesley and the Officers of the Regiment, played.

After breakfast the Bride, accompanied by the Bridesmaids, retired, and shortly afterwards reappeared, the Bride being attired in an elegant travelling dress. The Bride and Bridegroom then took their departure, amidst showers of rice and the ket is being victimised by secret sales, and

The weather was fine, and an excellent wicket was pitched the ground being in first-class condition The Australians, winning the toss, went to the wickets, which they occupied for the greater part of the day. Several players batted well, Palmer especially distinguishing himself by playing a brilliant innings of before being run out. Trumble also batted well for 45, bowled. The innings closed for 275 runs. The home team made a good commencement, and had scored 42 without the loss of a wicket when the stumps were drawn for the day.

July 13 .- The match was continued at Sheffield to-day. The attendance was again enormous, and the weather fine. The home term resumed their innings, which closed for a total of 158, whereof Bates made 57. Being in a minority of 117, the Yorkshire men had to follow on, and made an excel lent stand, scoring 211 for the loss of seven wickets. Bates again headed the score with 44 runs. July 14.—The attendance at the match

Australians v. Yorkshire to-day was small the weather being unfavourable. The re maining Yorkshire wickets fell rapidly, and the innings closed for total of 249 runs. In the Australians' second innings, Scott batted finely, being not out for 67.

The visitors won by six wickets. 15th July. - Scott, in the final over in the match Australians v. Yorkshire, scored three 6's and one 4.
